

MeowMeow Is Lost

MeowMeow was lost at one of six stops, but the most likely stop was the Sherman Summit Rest Area on I-80 in Wyoming. Dogs were brought in, psychics were hired, miles of ground were covered. She is not at that rest stop. If she hitched a ride unnoticed, she might have jumped out the next time the vehicle stopped. If someone picked her up, she could be as far away as California or Florida or even Canada.

Please help me find my Little Girl. I am completely broken without her.

MeowMeow is four and a half years old and she has traveled all of her life. She is not afraid of new places or people or vehicles. I understand that someone probably has her, and they might not want to give her up. If this is the case, I promise you that she will forever be a part of your family. We will work it out.
